

Normal

Potter Payper

Me, I'm so hands on it's normal
Be patient, it takes long, it's normal
Understand where I came from, it's normal
She lost her son, she's gotta stay strong, it's normal
Get right or get left now, it's normal
You see we struggle for success, it's normal
Break bread when we cut cheques, it's normal
I blow smoke, like fuck feds, it's normal
It's on sight when we bump heads, it's normal
I stay with some bad boys, they'll corn you
And lay on them bunk beds, it's normal
They're just tryna keep mouths fed, it's normal
I'll grind till I'm right, that's just normal
See owning your house, that ain't normal
Getting up and getting out of that ain't normal
Donny opened up his mouth, that ain't normal
They try labelling us scum like the borstal
I'm the daddy, Ray Winstone in this normal
See twelve, hit the bank, man that's normal
Needles on the floor like Saw II, normal
Line banging like Lamron, it's normal
So you can bang or get banged on, it's normal
Banging up and banging out like it's normal
That just helps me understand that I ain't normal

Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?
I'm never gonna walk away
Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?
I pray to see another day
Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?
I'm never gonna walk away
Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?

Lord I know that I've been sinning
But I'm trying to walk away
Out the window I've been drifting
Sat there sipping through my pain

I broke down the norm, I wish this shit was different
I sit back and twist one, thinking about my missed ones
Jakes wanna see me Max B, how is this life?
Shit I know love different
From these kids and what their mums give 'em
And what their mums didn't
Teacher told me I was gifted, guess I heard different
Shit I'm too good with these words, you've gotta bear witness
You only hear music, you've gotta feel realness
The rap game's like the trap game, it's the same difference
Everybody's tryna make livings, no fucks given
But shit, something's gotta give though
I'm on the M-way blowing endo out the window
Tryna get this money, one take
You better keep that for your mum's sake

Cause all it takes is one snake and they'll be at your front gate
Am I para or just different?
Drinking Henny with no mixer
These flavours in my Rizla are different
I'm about to take this off the Richter
Money truer than religion
In this True Religion, I've been wild from an infant
Man I get it popping instant
You're real in what instance?
We're all sinners, no different
It's normal, I'm different
I said it's normal, I'm different

Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?
I'm never gonna walk away
Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?
I pray to see another day
Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?
I'm never gonna walk away
Do you, do you know what?
Do you, do you know what?

Lord I know that I've been sinning
But I'm trying to walk away
Out the window I've been drifting
Sat there sipping through my pain
