

It's Over

Pouya

I keep thinking that it's over now
I'm just hopin' that she'll come around
And everything that she's done to me
I guess it really wasn't meant to be

I can't hide it, even though I've tried it
I can keep on smilin' but she terrifies me
I can't hide it, even though I've tried it
I can keep on smilin' but it's over now

I've been hidin' from my emotions
Losing my focus, feel like a goldfish
The way that you make me think that I'm crazy
Manipulate me until the point that I can't see
I've been thinkin' 'bout you all day long
But twenty-four hours ain't enough, yuh
I've been thinkin' 'bout you all night long
That's twenty-four hours too much, yuh

I can't hide it, even though I've tried it
I can keep on smilin' but she terrifies me
I can't hide it, even though I've tried it
I can keep on smilin' but it's over now

Movin' on, lettin' go, let you know how I feel
Is it real? Is it really not? Yuh
Do you still get those stomach knots and those butterflies
When you look at me with those brown eyes?
Baby, don't lie, I can take the pain
I just really wanna know what you've been up to
Maybe waitin' for another man to fuck you
Got me wishin' that I never fell in love with you

I keep thinking that it's over now
(I can't hide, I can't hide, I can't hide, no)
I'm just hopin' that she'll come around
And everything that she's done to me
I guess it really wasn't meant to be

I can't hide it, even though I've tried it
I can keep on smilin' but she terrifies me
I can't hide it, even though I've tried it
I can keep on smilin' but it's over now

(But it's over now)
