Never had food on my plate
I had to wait, it's part of the prophecy
Never been one of them ones who's Fakin' the funk, I'm just who I wanna be
I'ma keep one thing straight
It's straight OG's, I don't chill with wannabes
Know that I'm something you wanna be
Them hundreds, they runnin' in front of me
Just popped a Perky, is it workin'? For certain
Thirty mg got my stomach twerkin', it's hurtin'
Tell me, why you nervous, do you wanna close the curtains?
I bust it from the back, that's heart attack, that Tommy squirtin'
I know they do not like it, but I do that shit on purpose
And we just shot a movie, yeah, that camera cost a Birkin

Once you realize that all the shit you used to care so much about
Just keeps you a prisoner of your own mind (What the fuck?)

My smile don't match the pain inside my mind
My time is winding down (Yuh)

Stone cold like my heart, I'll stun a nigga with this TEC (Damn)
