

Six Speed

I'm back in a cycle

Feel like a psycho

Feel like I'm Michael, yuh

Don't look at my bread, don't look at my whip

Take a look at my FICO, yuh

I'm pacing and thinking of robbing a bank with the homies I hang with

These hoes wanna make it, the bank or the banquet

Come hang with the gang get shady

Drunk drive in a Mercedes

.45 on the hip daily

Screaming out "fuck you pay me"

I ain't patient, I got OCD

Feel like I'm not controlling me

Still them hoes gon' fall for me

Pussy that they offer me is often not too luxury

But let me see what that lick read

Triple digits in the six speed

Think I fell in love when that bitch hit me

I might fuck around and bust her down and buy a Bentley

For that bitch while you was fucking with them lames I made my baby m omma rich

Baby play with my dick not my emotions

Shed so many tears that I could fill an ocean

We was coasting, now we roller coasting

Look inside my eyes and feel the pain that you put on me

I just pray to Peep that you don't leave me lonely

Thousand bitches but they can't do nothing for me

You my one and only

I know you need some company so come on over

Do you love me, do you love exposure?

Aye man, Pouya man, I got you man
