You vs. Me Round III

Powerspace

Yeah, Everybody's jealous of my girlfriend
Cause nobody can stand the one that they have Trying every strategy they know
And, I don't really care cause they have no chance

So, Everybody's trying to steal my girlfriend
They all know me but I don't really know them
When I come around they act like my friends
Cause they know I'm gonna ruin their plans

(Everybody's jealous of my girlfriend)

Everybody's jealous of my girlfriend
Because every guy wants what he can't have I'd hate to be the one to foil your plans
Oh, so just give up cause you've got no chance

Everybody's trying to steal my girlfriend
I guess that they don't know she's mine
Maybe in another, another lifetime
They would have a chance with a girl so fine

(I can't wait for the remix to come out)

Well, everybody jealous of my new band
Cause we do everything that other bands can't
Oh, I'm sorry we stole your fans
But, It's not my fault like our new jam

Everybody jealous of my new band
Telling everyone that we are so bad
But, I don't give a shit because it's so sad
Cause we know we got it if they don't, yeah

Well, everybody jealous of my new band
We do everything that other bands can't
It's not my fault we stole all your fans
It's not my fault they like our new jam

Everybody's jealous of my new band
They say we're writing trends but they don't know that
I started this before it wasn't broken
Everybody wants all these things of mine

(Everybody's stressing it
But all I ever think about is)

I can't wait for the remix to come out

Everybody's jealous of my new band
we do everything that other bands can't
It's not my fault we stole all your fans
It's not my fault they like our new jam

Everybody's jealous of my new band
They say we're writing trends but they don't know that
I started this before it wasn't broken

Everybody wants all these things of mine
