

BLUE

Powfu

You ripped off my wings
And I fell to the floor
Stabbed me in the back
Through my cage to the core
Tell me why you're mad at me
What for
All I ever did
Was try to give u more
You ripped off my wings
And I fell to the floor
Stabbed me in the back
Through my cage to the core
My emotions had enough
I'm so done with you
My skies turning blue

I'm so glad that its over
Pushed away that boulder
No more tears on the floor
No more head rest on my shoulder
Wrapped it up like a snack wrap
Hung up on u like a backpack
Slammed the phone like a rat trap
I'm rolling out like clap trap
Now I'm gone and your wrong
You're just another dumb blonde
And I don't care what u say I ain't coming back
Never wanna see yo face again
Used to see just red
Now I see blue skies up ahead
I'm leaving the words that you said
No longer I feel dead

You ripped off my wings
And I fell to the floor
Stabbed me in the back
Through my cage to the core
Tell me why you're mad at me
What for
All I ever did
Was try to give u more
In a bad place for too long
Now you're stars struck that I moved on
My emotions had enough
I'm so done with u
My skies turning blue

My sky is turning
My heart is burning
Sky is turning
And I'm still learning

Made a bad decision
My vision blurry
We don't mix good
Like a Mcflurry
Learning from my mistakes

Sorry that it didn't work out
Went the wrong way
Time to take the right turn now
I know u know
That I really liked you
But now I'll never fall in love
With anybody like you
If u think imma come back no way
Done with the past now I feel ok

You ripped off my wings
And I fell to the floor
Through my cage to the core
What for
All I ever did
Now you're stars struck that I moved on
My emotions had enough
I'm so done with u
