Powfu

Halftime and I'm still down
I don't see you in the crowd

She don't wanna hear it, a voice in the wind
Hang out with the spirits and look out my window
Waiting for you to come back like it's simple
Tried to reach out, but you changed all your info
Open up the cupboard, but no coffee left
And my cinnamon is missing from the cabinet
And it don't get easy
No more drawings on the grocery list

Halftime and I'm still down
I don't see you in the crowd
Something inside me died
You hit me from the blinds
Halftime and I'm still down
I don't see you in the crowd
Something inside me died
You hit me from the blinds

Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Hit me from the blinds
Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Say that you love me

All the walls are melting
My turn at the gates, they stay closed
Feel like the world's been hit by a bomb
I'm over here bathing in asphalt
Can't breath under all these conditions
Unfortunate path of decisions
Splitting my heart in half
Across the map, that's long division
I'm in, she's always out
I'm up, she's always down
Like my ceiling is the ground
I'm never gonna get over you
I ask, I never know
It's dark like telescope
Your hair is like a rope that pulls me into misery

Halftime and I'm still down
I don't see you in the crowd
Something inside me died
You hit me from the blinds
Halftime and I'm still down
I don't see you in the crowd
Something inside me died
You hit me from the blinds

Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Say that you love me

Hit me from the blindside
Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Hit me from the blindside

Say that you love me
Say that you love me
Say that you love me
