

I just want time by you, my girl
See you in the screen, but not my world
Use up all the lies, you'll be my demise

Uh, yeah
She think I'm hot, I'm the opposite (Yeah)
Character looks crazy when I'm logging on in (logging on in)
Tell me when you're on, I'll be there in a minute (One minute)
Yeah, you could see me skate in my white tee, enemies tremble at a glance
Any of the loot, every chance
I know life is critical, so promise me you're listening
I could build the world that you want

I just want time by you, my girl
See you in the screen, but not my world
Use up all the lies, you'll be my demise
I just want time by you, my love
When you're on my mind, it's only us
Use up all the lies, addicted to a girl that can't be mine

Why can't you see the bigger picture?
Writing on the wall, I think I'm in love with you
We can be it all, baby, I don't wanna fix you
Staring at the stars, would you walk with me to Mars?
Would you answer if I called? Would you love me if I missed you?
New day and new ways, I see you wrap around my heart
Feel like a new life and nowhere closer where you are, my baby
You're all that I speak of lately

I just want time by you, my girl (Time by you)
See you in the screen, but not my world (Not my world)
Use up all the lies, you'll be my demise (All the lies)

I've been dying to meet you through the Internet
Don't wanna move too fast, I wanna make it last
Baby, time is of the essence
Already took your heart, I'll pick it right up where he left it
I've been on a sick one, thinking of a life where you can kiss me through my disc call
Why you throwin' fits for?
I know this is love, your smile's everything I live for Couldn't you just sign? Tell me I'm the one you miss more

I just want time by you, my girl
See you in the screen, but not my world
Use up all the lies, you'll be my demise
I just want time by you, my love
When you're on my mind, it's only us
Use up all the lies, addicted to a girl that can't be mine
