

eleanor & bellami

Powfu

(Ew, get off of me...)

(Ugh, as if!)

Uh, yeah

Eleanor and Bellami

Don't know what these feelings for you really mean

Dear Adeline and Emery

Sorry, but with you it don't feel as deep

(Ah)

Da-da-da da da da da

Da-da-da da-da-da da da

Da-da-da da da da da

Da da

Tuggin', tuggin', tuggin' on my fishing rod

Stickin' out my car door

If I caught them all, I'd tell Ash that I want more

Waitin' for a mermaid

I'll be up all night, girl

I'll hold your umbrella like Piper

She's a diamond inside of my blade

She's the icing on my cupcake

She's the one I can't look away from

All these other girls get in the way, hun

And it's not about who the others like

I'm falling fast like a waterslide

I didn't mean to be breaking hearts

But one at a time, dear

Eleanor and Bellami

Don't know what these feelings for you really mean (Really mean)

I saw the signs, I apologize (Apologize)

Didn't mean to take up and waste your time (Waste your time)

Dear Adeline and Emery (Emery)

Don't know what these feelings for you really mean

But I tried it once and tried it twice

I can't get this other one off my mind (One off my mind)

Da-da-da da da da da

Da-da-da da-da-da da da

Da-da-da da da da da

Da da

Been some time and, girl, you're still on my mind

Tell me why, why you always tell those lies?

Eleanor, Adeline, oh-oh

I feel like I've been through this way too many times

So tell me why

You know that I've been broke

Getting better now, who gon' hold it down?

Will you be there for me when the lights go out?

You used to be my everything, oh oh oh

Now you're just another name on the list, oh

Bellami and Emery

I hate to say it, but these feelings ain't that deep

(Yeah)

Eleanor, Bellami
