(Tsurreal)

Ice in my heart, you can see it in my skin tone
I don't wanna fight, feel them looking through the window
I know I'ma die, but this time I'll give you all of me
Yeah, ayy, definitely, probably
Ice in my heart, you can see it in my skin tone
I don't wanna fight, feel them looking through the window
I know I'ma die, but this time I'll give you all of me
Yeah, ayy, definitely, probably

Yeah, I just missed your birthday
Shit, I keep on messing up the worst ways
Yeah, I'm tryna finish education
Find the motivation, failing every way (Yeah)
Yeah, I just missed your birthday
Shit, you should've left me in the first place
I can't see through the wall of my sin
I'm still tryna understand what I am

Yeah, yeah
I'm tryna find out all that I am
I'd kill for you what I feel for you, you

Tell me where your heads at, tell me where I'm destined
How you feel when I'm at your side?
How's it feel when we say goodbye?
Don't expect this to last long, I'll miss this more than my last one
If I don't got what you want me to
Just let me know, I won't bother you
I'd rather be screaming than learning lessons
I guess being a failure is what I'm blessed with
You think I'm annoying, so I won't ask you twice
But why don't you leave if I'm not the man you like?

Yeah, I just missed your birthday
Shit, you should've left me in the first place
I can't see through the wall of my sin
I'm still tryna understand what I am

Like
Yeah, I just missed your birthday
