

Long Fights, Short Tempers

Powfu

I feel so young, I feel so high
Fast heart beats and blood shot eyes
Rainy Days bad weather
My parents never put in effort
I've never known any better
Than long fights short tempers
Rainy Days bad weather
My parents never put in effort
I've never known any better
Than long fights short tempers
Don't go hide away in the night
I'll hold you close I don't want to fight
I won't act like I was raised
I've done my best to forget those ways
Your my Pokemon
Your the one I choose
I ain't losing grip
I ain't losing you
This never ends
Since you chased me in the third grade
Tackled my heart
And I moved you up to first place
Whoa, hold up let me get in it
Make me laugh when you push my limits
So far gone like you're my star
When your gone, my skies are dark
Rainy Days bad weather
My parents never put in effort
I've never known any better
Than long fights short tempers
Rainy Days bad weather
My parents never put in effort
I've never known any better
Than long fights short tempers
Don't go hide away in the night

I'll hold you close I don't want to fight

I won't act like I was raised

I've done my best to forget those ways
