

I'm trying to make-believe without you
It's hard for me to lie and say I fell for someone else
B-B-Boyfifty
But I know now you wanted me to stay
So I'll stay another day and fall for you instead

My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
Was blind to the danger
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you

By the fireflies, where do I begin?
What's left to talk about? I told you all there is
In the morning you'll say that you want me back
But this time I won't fall back into your trap

It's not okay if I pretend I don't see it
This street's gonna flood one day
Won't float on the bed I made
So can't keep defending you, I'm done keeping secrets
Couldn't beat the game, but I played it
Yet I'm the one frustrated, you felt it

My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
Was blind to the danger
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
Has moved somewhere safer
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
Was left on the carpet
Your heart for me
Your heart for me
Your heart for me
Has fully been hardened

But I know now you wanted me to stay
So I'll stay another day and fall for you instead

Uh, by the fireside I pick on my guitar strings
Not with you anymore but feel your markings
When we started, never never thought I saw it ended
But the art that I built for you now a wreckage

It's not okay if I pretend I don't see it
This street's gonna flood one day
Won't float on the bed I made
So can't keep defending you, I'm done keeping secrets
Yet I'm the one frustrated, you felt it

My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
My love for you
Your heart for me
Your heart for me
