

no balls

Powfu

Uh, yeah
Yeah

You gave me the time to
Put it on the line for you
Know that you've been waiting
But I don't have the balls
Don't know what I'm scared of
Maybe I'm just scared of us
I know that you're perfect, so run before I fall
'Cause I don't have the balls

(Yeah, uh)
I don't have the balls
I don't have the balls
(Uh, uh)
I have no testicles (hah, sheesh)
(I'm playing)

Never felt this horrible
Doesn't help you're adorable
Everyday I'm learning (learning)
More things that concern me (concern me)
Ordered you a white chariot
Here's my heart, go bury it
Can't lock the door, but I found my home
Learned to breathe, but you'll see me choke
It's simple, don't get close
You'll put yourself at risk
I'm different
Commitment to me is a bag of shit
Hope one day I'll grow up
Tackle these opportunities, but we'll be on a different avenue
(Ahh)
But we'll be on a different avenue
(Ahh)

You gave me the time to
Put it on the line for you
Know that you've been waiting
But I don't have the balls
Don't know what I'm scared of
Maybe I'm just scared of us
I know that you're perfect, so run before I fall
'Cause I don't have the balls

I'm still in love with the thought of you
The thought of me and you
I'm still in love with the thought, but not of
But not of the truth
If only I saw where my life might lead
Take you through the falls, never looking back
Don't make any plans 'cause they won't succeed
Knowing me
(Ahh)
Yeah, yeah
Ever since I was a kid, uh

Never thought love could exist with all of my worries, had trouble believing
Maybe I'll heal, see how I feel when you finally leave me
I wish my heart stopped beating, 'cause inside I'm screaming for you

You gave me the time to
Put it on the line for you
Know that you've been waiting
But I don't have the balls
Don't know what I'm scared of
Maybe I'm just scared of us
I know that you're perfect, so run before I fall
'Cause I don't have the balls
