

walk on wine

Powfu

She don't eat bread but she walk on wine
Shiver up my spine
Fall asleep at seven at night
Want a bad girl with an innocent mind

Where the cherry blossoms live
And the gossip is
About a girl that stole my consciousness
When my arm broke, I started liking you
Laughed at my cast but you signed it too
Yeah, dug deep inside this hole
I don't wake up unless you call
Feel like I'm homeless without you
Under my roof you'll have a room

I don't know my love
But I'm happy to solve it
You know how it's done
Pull me up from the bottom
Caught me in a slump
But it's all that matters now
(But it's all that matters
But it's all that matters
But it's all that matters)

She don't eat bread but she walk on wine
Shiver up my spine
Fall asleep at seven at night
Want a bad girl with an innocent mind
She don't eat bread but she walk on wine
Shiver up my spine
Fall asleep at seven at night
Want a bad girl with an innocent mind

She looks straight out a catalogue
I still got my pajamas on
She the pyramids of Giza
I'm the tower of Babylon
Feel my body heal when I make you laugh
Tell me what you want

What you want
I be sitting front row
Watching all your dances
Drive you to your classes
We can be that classic
Movie that's romantic
Gonna let the sparks fly
Might burn down your attic
Yeah yeah

Who's important
Me? Not so
Pouring rain
Better change my clothes
It's okay girl
It's okay

She don't eat bread but she walk on wine
Shiver up my spine
Shiver up my spine
