Powfu

I was just a wallflower now I feel awful
Teach me how to fall from grace and land
And all for what?
I was just a wallflower now I feel awful
Seeking my reflection?
Not at all
I just really wanna call it all off

Family full of wall street assholes
I ain't making money
I make music
Rich kids with their bright green apples
If I see another I'mma lose it

You sold me on what you said
Hoping there was something left

Mustard on my shirt
Uh this time it ain't coming off
Soon you'll see my worth
Hearing every song I'm hopping on

I was just wallflower
Had no one I could turn to
Rip me off the wall
Now it's time to desert you

Still need more sunlight to bloom
I'll break a hole through my roof

I was just a wallflower now I feel awful
Teach me how to fall from grace and land
And all for what?
I was just a wallflower now I feel awful
Seeking my reflection?
Not at all
I just really wanna call it all off

Call it all off
Never thought I was gonna move from where I was
Feel like I be spilling my heart on every song
And the people that looked down on me
Now they sing along uh

Funny how shit change
Now they trynna ride on my wave
Yeah they flooding at the gates
Swear I'm giving more than I take
Yeah yeah

I was just a wallflower now I feel awful
Teach me how to fall from grace and land
And all for what?
I was just a wallflower now I feel awful
Seeking my reflection?
Not at all
I just really wanna call it all off
