

Superstar

Pras

Baby, you're my superstar
It doesn't matter where you go or where you are
I play you like my favorite song
Every second, every hour, in the shower, twice on Sundays, babe
Sundays, baby

I'll put you on a stage, let the world get jealous
They could never break what God truly made
Your beauty is alive, and it's so contagious
Oh, you deserve all the accolades

Oh, baby, you're my superstar
It doesn't matter where you go or where you are
I treat you like my favorite song
Every second, every hour, in the shower, twice on Sundays, baby
My superstar
(Mlife)
My superstar
I built me, black royalty
Still filthy, not guilty
Bass heavy, cheese deadly
Swift medley, Grace Kelly
Go dumb, Shogun
Gold bars, bullion
I'm a boss, answer to no one
You a star, takes one to know one
BBL, pretty toes, don't tease me
Can't leave Haiti alone, my home needs me
No matter where you go, there you are
Memoirs of a ghetto superstar, mmm

Nobody knows your name
The lights, cameras follow you everywhere you go
Lights, cameras everywhere you go

Oh, baby, you're my superstar
It doesn't matter where you go or where you are
I treat you like my favorite song
Every second, every hour, in the shower, twice on Sundays, baby
Sundays, baby
Sundays, baby
Sundays, baby

Oh, baby, you're my superstar
It doesn't matter where you go or where you are
I play you like my favorite song
Every second, every hour, in the shower, twice on Sundays, baby
