

Simple Song

Prelow

Hey, hey
And I wish I could come over, mmm
To the room in your mind
Where the days are the memories
You live beneath

Oh the simple things we didn't get to say
All the simple things we didn't have to say
Oh the simple things we didn't get to say
All the simple things we didn't have to say

And I know you take it different, mmm
In the light of tonight
I can say you probably see it clear

Oh the simple things we didn't get to say
All simple things we didn't have to say
Oh the simple things we didn't get to say
All simple things we didn't have to say
