

Tell Me Your Secret

Prelow

Tell me your secret
I promise I'll keep it
I know what it's like to be dreaming
I know what it feels like to leave it
The sky never falls
Now that there's feelings involved
I waited and waited
But thinking don't get me much closer at all

Just tell me when you're wrong
So I'll forgive you when you're wrong
I'm going closer
I'm going closer

Just tell me when you're wrong
So I'll forgive you when you're wrong
I'm going closer
I'm going closer

Tell me your secret
I swear I'll believe it
I know what it's like in the moment
I know we'll eventually leave it
Spring turns to fall
You feel that we've been through it all
I waited and waited
But thinking don't get me much closer at all

Just tell me when you're wrong
So I'll forgive you when you're wrong
I'm going closer
I'm going closer

Just tell me when you're wrong
So I'll forgive you when you're wrong
I'm going closer
I'm going closer

Take me down a notch
So you can hang your coat
On my arm as you leave on a different note
What's that thing no one ever says
What's that thing no one ever says

Just tell me when you're wrong
So I'll forgive you when you're wrong
I'm going closer
I'm going closer

Just tell me when you're wrong
So I'll forgive you when you're wrong
I'm going closer
I'm going closer
