

LIKE HELL!

Presence

Sometimes you still haunt me
I go outside of my body
The way that I see myself
Crash and burning like hell

15 minutes in I'm starting to feel it
The show just started I can't wait till it's finished
I'm in the spotlight
Where everybody sees everything
In the spotlight
Where it's darker than anything

I dreamt of being on a stage
Now I just gonna run away
Get these cameras out of my face
Can't you see I'm not okay?
All these walls keep spinning and spinning and spinning
I don't know where I'm at
Watch my pupils just get bigger and bigger until my eyes are black

Everyone's around but I'm all alone
They only see the side that I choose to show
Once you feel the thorns at the stem of the rose
You know you got too close
You got too close

Sometimes you still haunt me
I go outside of my body
The way that I see myself
Crash and burning like hell
If it all happens for a reason
Tell me why am I still breathing?
The way that I see myself
Crash and burning like hell

When it all falls down
I'ma raise hell
If it's gotta crash and burn
I'ma do it myself
When it all falls down
I'ma raise hell
If it's gotta crash and burn
I'ma do it myself

If they don't understand
I bet by they will by the end
I made it out of rock bottom
Ended up here again
I was running from my demons
Now we're making amends
I said what I said
I'll say it again

Everyone's around but I'm all alone

You got too close

Sometimes you still haunt me
Tell me why am I still breathing?

(Hell)
I'm gonna raise hell
(Hell)
I'm gonna raise hell
(Hell)
I'm gonna raise hell
(Hell)
I'm gonna raise hell

Sometimes you still haunt me
The way I that see myself
I'm gonna raise hell
