

My Destiny

Press Play

(In the beginning God gave you a destiny.
Will you do whatever it takes to make sure the destiny you've been called to comes to pass? It's your life. Live it.)

It's been a long time comin'
Now I see the light, so I'm runnin'
Cause I've been waitin' for so long
Can't mess this up
I gotta be strong
See I've been pullin' borrowed chains
Cause I know trouble don't last always
I see the light shinin'
I'm reachin' for a ray of hope

Because I know I gotta,
I gotta keep believin'
I'm stayin on this path and ain't never leavin'
I'm ready for today
Cause nothin's gonna get in the way of
My destiny

No one can take my joy
No one can take my peace
No one can take my destiny
He's my everything
And you can't take it from me

It's clear that I'm here for a reason
And I'm ready for a new season
No turnin' back now
I won't allow anything to bring me down
I've stumbled along the way
And I got back up because of His grace
I had to fall and let him pull me
I'm steppin' into the best of my best

It's your time now
Let me hear you sing it loud!
