

Truth Be Told

Press Play

Everybody's been askin why
Why the truth's gotta be denied
Cause our reality's become a joke
Cause the truth has already been told
We can count off all the reasons why
Turn reality into a lie
But the troubled always turn to hope
Cause the truth has already been told

Gotta make it known to the nation
We're about to shake the foundation
We are makin sure that the truth is told, told, told, told
Gotta shout it out to the public
There is only one way to have it
We are makin sure that
That the truth is told, told, told, told.
Ohhhh.

Tell everybody truth and life, oh.
It's time to open up our eyes,
Tell sinners like you and me,
'Bout the one who created everything.
Yeah!

Speak the truth in love.
LOVE!
