

Don't Break (My Soul)

Preston Pablo

I guess that it's true
I guess that we're like this now
It's because of you
Oh, you let me down
Just give me some time
And I promise I'm gon' figure it out
And I promise I won't let you drown
And I promise that it's over now

If you wanna know me, baby, make your mind up
If you wanna hate me, you can go and try
If you wanna love me, baby, take your time
Take it slow

Just don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
And I won't break yours
Oh, yours
Oh, yours
I won't break yours

Still thinking of you
The memory's on my mind
When we danced in your room
How I loved you then
So I won't waste time
Promised you that I would not lie
And I know that loving you don't feel right
So I won't do it again

If you wanna know me, baby, make your mind up
If you wanna hate me, you can go and try
If you wanna love me, baby, take your time
Take it slow

Just don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
And I won't break yours
Oh, yours
Oh, yours
I won't break yours (I won't break yours)

If you wanna know me, baby, make your mind up
If you wanna hate me, you can go and try
And if you wanna love me, baby, take your time
Take it slow

Just don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
Don't break my soul
