

One Sided

Preston Pablo

See you in the corner of the room now, dancin' like you got nothin' to lose now
Baby you don't got nothin' to prove now
You've been watchin' me, I'm watchin' you now
And I know you don't need nobody, baby I can be somebody
I don't notice anybody
In this room
But you

Tell me that I'm good enough
Just make it sound true enough
No slowin' down, just speed it up

Let me take you home tonight
You can just stay by my side
You can leave in the sunlight
I don't need no ride or die
I can do your body right
Only if you let me try
We don't even need goodbyes
This can be a one sided love
This can be a one sided love

I'm done waitin' on you girl
I need you to say the word
Promise that you won't get hurt
And we don't even need all the drama
You don't even have to be honest
You can even lie if you wanna

Nobody watchin' you like I am
Nobody holdin' you like I can
Nobody wantin' you like I am

Let me take you home tonight
You can just stay by my side
You can leave in the sunlight
I don't need no ride or die
I can do your body right
Only if you let me try
We don't even need goodbyes
This can be a one sided love
This can be a one sided love
This can be a one sided love
One sided love
One sided love
