

Another Shot of Your Love

Pretty Maids

Can't see it out
That's how I feel
You're not around
It seems so unreal
I'm beat and down
Battered and blue
Feeling useless

I spend my days
Lying in bed
Guess I behave
Like a pathetic wreck
Don't you see me babe
this bleeding heart is Running on empty

I just need
Another shot of your love

I'm on broken wings
And a little ain't never enough
I wan't everything

And all that you've got
You're so hot to love
And so hard to leave
You're in my blood
In the air that I breathe
Take me inside spin me around
And eat my heart out

Chorus

Girl I gotta have it
Babe I need some fuel to run
