

I can't deny myself
The nature of my kind
The constant bitterness
That seems to plague my mind
All the time
The downward spiral of my life
Won't take a turn
I can't control that envious feeling
That still burns

Inside of me
Externally
Jealousy

You're flawless
Prestigious
And I.N.V.U.
I'm faceless
Ungracious
And I.N.V.U.

Then I see you who got whole world at your feet
At seems that everything is coming down your street
So neat
And poor pathetic me stuck in this private hell
Antoher dying dreams of piles of dollar bills

Apathy
Misery
Bleeding me

You're flawless
Prestigious
And I.N.V.U.
I'm faceless
Ungracious
And I.N.V.U.

Whatever feeds my jealousy
It's building up inside of me
It's burning, still burning
Another worn out fantasy
Another dream that shouldn't be at all.
