

Bare

Pretty Sick

Love comes in all colours they say
But they're blind to the shades that I love you in
They don't see my red yet or blue
They don't know why I do what I do for you
He's done it once, he'll do it again they say
But they don't know the way I feel, the way I feel this way
And if you do it again I hope you don't say
For a little while longer so I can stay

But I know he loves me, he does
Oh he loves me
But I know he loves me, he does

Love comes in all colours you say
But you're blind to the shades that I'm living in
You don't see my black and blue
You don't know how it hurts, these things that you do
Done it once, you'll do it again, I know
But I will stay to water all the seeds I've sewn
And if you do it again I hope you don't show
So that I can see that if my burnt seed will grow

But I know he loves me, he does
Oh he loves me
But I know he loves me, he does

Romantic girl, you've got your hands up in the air
You're standing naked and bare
I don't care
Romantic girl, you've got your hands up in the air
You're standing naked and bare
I don't care
Oh, foolish girl, you've got your hands up in the air
You're standing naked and bare
Don't you care?
Oh, stupid girl, you've got your hands up in the air
You're standing naked, naked and bare
And bare
And bare
And bare
