

Devil In Me

Pretty Sick

The Devil in me likes a Devil in you
With the eyes of an angel
I like what I see too
I know I'm making a mistake, but what can I do?
When eyes sweet as yours look at me the way you do

What you wanna see?
Besides my guarantee
As precious as my time is
I can't make no promises
What you wanna hear?
Besides my darkest fears
Like a bat of hell, I don't have none

The Devil in me likes a Devil in you
With the eyes of an angel
I like what I see too
I know I'm making a mistake, but what can I do?
When eyes sweet as yours look at me the way you do

What you wanna know?
Besides my self-control
Well, if you want control
I don't have none

What you wanna be?
Besides inside of me
Boy, it's obvious
I'm not that easy

The Devil in me likes a Devil in you
With the eyes of an angel
I like what I see too
I know I'm making a mistake but, what can I do?
When eyes sweet as yours look at me the way you do

And in the in-between I wonder what it is you do
Cause you know that I want to
The angel on your shoulder talking to you
