

Lilith Song

Pretty Sick

Blood starts to bubble, brain starts to fry
And I'm staring at myself with dilated eyes

Something inside me, spark that just won't die
No matter how hard I pray away, no matter how I try

Well, if we go out, we'll be side-by-side
But Heaven don't need more angels and you just need more time
She says, well, if we go out, we'll be side-by-side
But I just want you here tonight, tonight

World starts to crumble, blade starts to cry
Lilith's wandering in her mind like a ghost in denial

Something inside me, spark that just won't die
No matter how hard I pray away, no matter how I try

Well, if we go out, we'll be side-by-side
But Heaven don't need more angels and you just need some time
She says, well, if we go out, we'll be side-by-side
But I just want you here tonight, tonight

Tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Oh, tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Oh, tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Tonight, tonight (Tonight, tonight)
Tonight

Well, if we go out, we'll be side-by-side
But Heaven don't need more angels and
She says, well, if we go out, we'll be side-by-side
But I just want you here tonight, tonight
Tonight
