

Physical

Pretty Sick

Now that the years have gone
All along too fast
I know that I will be remembered well
Now that my time has gone
Rushing towards the past
I know that I will be remembered well

But in all, I don't have a care in the world
I bet it all for you
I've won, I've lost my share, I've killed and spared
But it's all so physical
And it's all so physical
Even if I've lost (I've lost), you know (You know) I'll be there again
Because it's all so physical

Now that the party's done
No one sticks around
I know that I will be remembered well
Now that the glamour's past
And everyone's come down
I know I will be remembered well

But tonight
I don't have a care
For this boy or girl
I've bet it all before
I've won, I've lost some wars
And I know I will never let myself down
'Cause it's all so physical
'Cause it's all so physical

Even if I'm lost
You know, I know
I'll meet you again
Because it's all so physical
