

Saturn Return

Pretty Sick

Saturn's in your eyes, I lie, I lie, I lie
I'm always outside, I need a place to hide Saturn's in your eyes, got rings on rings on rings and things f or me to try Years ahead of mine, you watch me on the side, you watch me on the scene

And then your eyes met mine
Funny, I know that you been watching me the whole time
And then your eyes met mine
Obvious mistake, a good waste of time

Let's go, this place is dead, I need some more excitement Tinted all in red, no need to speak, go silent I'll be fine without, but I'll just smoke it in this once, I ne ver do get to go out
Years ahead of mine, you watch me on the side, you watch me on the screen

And then your eyes met mine
Funny, I know that you been watching me the whole time
And then your eyes met mine
Obvious mistake, a good waste of time
