

Telephone

Pretty Sick

Crying on your telephone
I'm trying to console you
I probably shouldn't want you
Not trying to ignore you

It's alright if you tell me so
I'll wait for you to say
Hey, I just want to know
Are you happy with him?
If are you happy with him?
If are you happy with him?

I'm shocked at how you lose your mind
I'm trying to control you
You've always been a friend of mine
Not trying to ignore you

It's alright if you tell me so
I'll wait for you to say
Hey, I just want to know
Are you happy with him?
If are you happy with him?
Are you happy with him?

'Cause I could tell now
'Cause you won't let me stop you
But it's alright
Alright
I can tell now cause
You're usually happy
When it's alright
Alright
