

Lost In Lust

Pretty Vicious

Ah

She's my answer to all your questions
With no intention to see me well
All these phases are total madness
Makes all this sadness seem like wealth

You and all the people I love
Lost in lust
You and now who do we trust?
Lost in lust

An abomination of social matters
Your constant slander describes yourself
My generation of little laughter
Your conversation deprives my health

You and all the people I love
Lost in lust
You, now who do we trust?
Lost in lust
You and all the people I love
Lost in lust
You, now who do we trust?
Lost in lust
Lost in lust
