

Button Eyes

The Pretty Wild

Now you got me tangled in your deception
Pulling on your silver string to bring tension
Cut it with a knife to teach you a lesson
I wear my pain like a worn out dress
Split side seams and a hole in my head
I play pretend on your dollhouse bed
I'm not your toy, quit making me feel possessed

I'm coming undone
Stitches tearing
Severed beyond repairing
You pull me out from the inside
I'm done hanging
By threads that you keep breaking
I'm ripping out these button eyes
La la la la la
I'm demonized, I'm demonized
As I dismantle your disguise
Ha ha ha ha ha
I laugh as I, I laugh as I
Rip out these button eyes

Under your skin lies a demon at rest
Delicate beauty now turned grotesque
A mirror of me that I can't suppress
I wear my pain like a worn out dress
Split side seams and a hole in my head
I play pretend on your dollhouse bed
I'm not your toy, quit making me feel possessed

You fed on me, you fed me lies
Built my trust then watched it die
You fed on me, you fed me lies
You thought you could eat me alive?
Cut out the parasite! Cut it!
You fed on me you fed me lies
You built my trust then watched it die
You fed on me, you fed me lies
Thought you could eat me alive
Rip out these button eyes

Stitches tearing
Severed beyond repairing
You pull me out from the inside
I'm done hanging
By threads that you keep breaking
I'm ripping out these button eyes
La la la la la
I'm demonized, I'm demonized
As I dismantle your disguise
Ha ha ha ha ha
I laugh as I, I laugh as I
Rip out these button eyes
