

I can't believe I'm still here with you, yeah
I told myself it would end
I taught myself to pretend
How to love, how to love, yeah

When I had nothing you told me that there was something
Inside me, you want to unlock, fill my cup with it
You're like a message in a bottle left at sea
Waitin' for someone like me to air it out
Ah yeah, ah yeah

I can see that I'm a whole new person
Since I met you it's for certain
I ain't ever letting go
Whatever you doing, babe, it's working
Baby, keep working on me
Whatever you do, don't stop that's perfect

I can't believe I'm still here with you, yeah
I told myself it would end
I taught myself to pretend
How to love, how to love, yeah
I can't believe that it's not over, yeah
I told myself to forget
You held that over my head
Taught me how to love, how to love, how to

Yeah
How to love, how to love
Taught me how to love, how to love, how to love

You choosin' to stay, but still don't know why (Why)
I can't explain it, I won't even try
Sometimes I wonder if you even think about it
Yeah, I feel like hell when you're around

I can see that I'm a whole new person
Since I met you it's for certain
I ain't ever letting go
Whatever you doing, babe, it's working
Baby, keep working on me
Whatever you do, don't stop that's perfect

I can't believe I'm still here with you, yeah
I told myself it would end (To pretend)
I taught myself to pretend
How to love, how to love, yeah
I can't believe that it's not over, yeah (It's not over)
I told myself to forget
You held that over my head
Taught me how to love, how to love (Taught me how to love)

How to love, how to love
(Taught me how to love, how to love)
I can see that, yeah
I can see that I'm a whole new person
Since I met you it's for certain I ain't ever letting go

I can see that
Working
Baby keep working, working
I can see that
(Taught me how to love, how to love)
How to love
(I can't believe that it's not over)
