

Hello

PRETTYMUCH

(Yo, it's PRETTYMUCH
Hello, hello, hello, hello...)

See me on TV, now you wanna say "what's up?"
Heard you play my song, top down, when you pull up to the club (woo)
Used to hit "do not disturb" when I tried to call you up (call you up
, yeah)
Said that we had no future, now you tryna keep in touch (uh, nah)

Used to put my heart inside the friend zone
But, baby I could throw it out the window
You could pay me back on the low (hey)
You know

You say hello hello hello (what you say girl?), hello hello
Used to be like bye bye bye, now you're playing with my mind
Hello hello hello (hello), hello hello
Used to be like bye bye bye, now you're here and I don't mind
Guess that's fine

Hello, hello, hello, hello...

I ain't got much time, girl I gotta catch a flight (he gotta catch a flight)
Thinking if you're here alone, we can kick it for the night (we can kick it)
When you make that cake look good, make me wanna take a bite, yeah, yeah
Put that denim in reverse, back it up into my life (back it up, back it up)

Used to put my heart inside the friend zone
But, baby I could throw it out the window
You could pay me back on the low (hey)
You know

You say hello hello hello, (hello) hello hello (hello)
Used to be like bye bye bye, now you're playing with my mind (my mind)
Hello hello hello (hello), hello hello
Used to be like bye bye bye, now you're here and I don't mind
Guess that's fine

Hello, hello, hello, hello...

Sing it
Hello hello hello, hello hello
Used to be like bye bye bye, now you're playing with my mind
You say hello hello hello, hello hello
Used to be like bye bye bye, now you're here and I don't mind
Guess that's fine

Hello, hello, hello, hello...
