

INTERLUDE

PRETTYMUCH

You said you would call me in the morning
Funny, how you always keep on stallin'
Why did you have to leave me when I'm fallin'?
Fallin' again, fallin' again

You said you would call me in the morning

Yeah, I don't know man
How do I dress up, bro
I'm little stressed right now, obviously
I don't know, it's just on my brain
So, was she thick?
Bro, it's not even about that like
It's, you know like, when you meet somebody?
And its like, it's just good conversation?
Like, you just genuinely get on
Like, it don't even have to be about anything
Crazy, just, I don't know, it's easy
Yeah, I don't know
Like, you always see that
Never been there, I don't know about that one
Yeah, it's not usually that easy for me
But, yeah I get you
I mean, it's like, if it's not one thing
It's another thing, it's just like
Yeah, it's the vibes there I have to jump
That's, that's good because
Because, no matter what, you're gonna run into it
You know, those not texting back moments
So you gonna question it, you know?
Yeah man, I don't know
I think you just gotta focus on yourself, bro
Yeah
You're worrying too much
We got money to make
That's true, we've got music to make
We've got music of anything
Yeah, yeah you're right, you're right
