

NERVOUS

PRETTYMUCH

I'm nervous, you're perfect for me

Lately, baby, I'm nervous
We're only scratching the surface
But you don't do it on purpose
That's why I lose my head sometimes
No, I don't want just anybody
I wanna make love to you
Girl you lookin' like a movie scene
That's why I always see you in my dreams

So go ahead, go pick up the camera
I'll show you I got a stamina
Girl, cancel all your plans tonight

Take a seat on this new California king
It's perfect for a queen
Can't you see?
I'm nervous, you're perfect for me
Lately, baby, I'm nervous
Woah

I'm nervous when I'm with you
Stayin' winning but I'm scared to lose
Got me tipsy but without the booze
Got me sightseeing like we in Cancun, nah
I don't wanna play with your mind
As long as you don't try to pretend that you're mine
So I'm gonna take you out to wine and dine
You can pour the shot, but don't forget about the lime

So go ahead, go pick up the camera
I'll show you I got a stamina
Girl, cancel all your plans tonight

Take a seat on this new California king
It's perfect for a queen
