

Parking Spot

PRETTYMUCH

If I had the chance to prove me wrong
Maybe then I'd try to forget it all
I guess it's my way of saying you left unnoticed (Yeah)
Now I have to decide, chase you or focus
Baby, why'd you leave without notice?
What's the location? I could pick up my heart (Yeah)

If I had to choose, you know I'd choose you (Choose you)
I stuck around, I held you down
So why are you giving up? (Straight up)

Since when did you have other plans
To leave me here in the sand with a broken heart? (With a broken heart)
I mean you made a few demands, girl
When you were in your bag, yeah, you talked a lot (Yeah, You talked a lot)
No, it wasn't in the plans, what happened to second chances?
That's all you got
'Cause ever since you ran, and let it fall apart
I've been looking for you like a parking spot (Parking spot, yeah, yeah)

What's a ride or die what you left behind, that was you and I
But was it a lie? I hope not
Did you draw the line? Was it me this time? Did you need some time
Or was it a guy? I hope not
Tryna forget, tell me where to get started
I did the time, it was all for you
You say that home is wherever the heart is
But since we departed it's all up for auction

If I had to choose, you know I'd choose you (You)
I'd stuck around, I'd held you down
So why are you giving up?

Since when did you have other plans
To leave me here in the sand with a broken heart? (Babe)
I mean you made a few demands, girl
When you were in your bag, yeah, you talked a lot (A lot)
No, it wasn't in the plans, what happened to second chances?
That's all you got
'Cause ever since you ran, and let it fall apart
I've been looking for you like a parking spot

Girl where'd you go, you go?
Say you left me by mistake
Say ooh-oh, ooh-oh
I guess I gotta go, go
Ooh-oh, oh, there's no turning back this time, no
Ooh-oh, I thought I had it all under control

Since when did you have other plans
To leave me here in the sand with a broken heart? (Broken heart)
I mean you made a few demands, girl
When you were in your bag, yeah, you talked a lot (Talked a lot)
No, it wasn't in the plans, what happened to second chances?
That's all you got
'Cause ever since you ran and let it fall apart
I've been looking for you like a parking spot

No, no, no, no, no, no
