

Real Friends

PRETTYMUCH

Hold up
It's PRETTYMUCH by the way, if you didn't know
Which you probably did 'cause you're listening
Go!

I don't know what you heard (hey)
Already know what it is
What are we doin' tonight? (I'm what?)
We can meet up at the crib (okay)
Don't need a table reserved
There ain't no line to get in (no line)
We can get up and go out and then pass out and wake up and do it again (hey hey hey hey)

You don't have to be a ten or a model
Got the Serato bumpin' the garage door
If it's true, if it ain't
If it's real, if it's fake
Do you mean what you say?
Hell if I know

You can call your girlfriends
I'mma be with my friends
Pull up to the function
Like we real friends
We don't need no service
Turn it to a circus
Party 'til the world ends
Like we real friends
You can call your girlfriends
I'mma be with my friends
Pull up to the function
Like we real friends
We don't need no service
Turn it to a circus
Party 'til the world ends
Like we real friends (yah, yah, yah)

Got a lot on your mind (yuh)
Put that on my plate (mhm)
I got room for your girls
That's a whole lotta cake (oh damn)
Don't care where it goes
It's about where we at
We on that hey, yo (woah, woah, woah)
And now there's no turning back, ay

You don't have to be a ten or a model
Got the Serato bumpin' the garage door
If it's true, if it ain't
If it's real, if it's fake
Do you mean what you say?
Hell if I know

You can call your girlfriends
I'mma be with my friends
Pull up to the function

Like we real friends (real friends)
We don't need no service
Turn it to a circus
Party 'til the world ends
Like we real friends (go go go)
You can call your girlfriends
I'mma be with my friends
Pull up to the function
Like we real friends
We don't need no service
Turn it to a circus
Party 'til the world ends
Like we real friends

Now it's just you and me and no one else
So let's stay here in the moment like there's nowhere else (nowhere else, ye ah)
Lookin' for a feelin' that I've never felt
Are you down to help? Yeah (you down to help though?)
Now it's just you and me and no one else
So let's stay here in the moment like there's nowhere else
Lookin' for a feelin' that I've never felt
Are you down to help?

You can call your girlfriends
I'mma be with my friends
Pull up to the function
Like we real friends
We don't need no service
Turn it to a circus
Party 'til the world ends
Like we real friends
You can call your girlfriends
I'mma be with my friends
Pull up to the function
Like we real friends
We don't need no service
Turn it to a circus
Party 'til the world ends
