SAME PLACE

PRETTYMUCH

I pretend I'm fine but I lie
Waking up from midnight drives like shit
I never knew you like this, girl
And sometimes I get lost in your eyes
Thinking bout you every time I'm high
You're the light to my spliff, girl

It feels like fire up until it's gone
Feels so right 'till she do me wrong
Act like it's okay 'till I'm all alone
Trynna hide my face in a broken phone screen
I thought I could change but it's just the old me
I thought I could change, still want you to hold me
Head on his shoulder trynna keep it lowkey

I bet he calls you baby
And I hate it
Cause you're laying up in the same place we used to fuck
Didn't wanna say it
Cause I hate it
When he's laying up in the same place we used to fuck, woah

In the same place we used to fuck

I pretend I'm fine until I
See you by his side and I'm like shit
Why'd you do me like this, girl
And I say that I'm trying but I'm not moving on I still live in your lie
I could never forget, girl

It feels like fire up until it's gone
Feels so right 'till she do me wrong
Act like it's okay 'till I'm all alone
Trynna hide my face in a broken phone screen
I thought I could change but it's just the old me
I thought I could change, still want you to hold me
Head on his shoulder trynna keep it lowkey

I bet he calls you baby
And I hate it
Cause you're laying up in the same place we used to fuck
Didn't wanna say it
Cause I hate it
When he's laying up in the same place we used to fuck

(I pretend I'm fine, see you by his side, I say that I'm trying)
In the same place we used to fuck
(Sometimes I get lost, thinking bout you, I could never forget girl)

Losing someone slowly
Broke me
Now everything just feels like Sunday morning, lonely baby

I bet he calls you baby
And I hate it
Cause you're laying up in the same place we used to fuck
Didn't wanna say it

Cause I hate it
When he's laying up in the same place we used to fuck

(I pretend I'm fine, see you by his side, I say that I'm trying)
In the same place we used to fuck
(Sometimes I get lost, thinking bout you, I could never forget girl)
In the same place we used to fuck

In the same place we used to fuck
In the same place we used to-
