

The Weekend

PRETTYMUCH

Champagne for the foreplay
Chase down with the rosé
Don't mind what your friends say
Bottles all night for your birthday
Might have seen you on my timeline
Or somewhere on the sidelines
But now you're right here by my side
Baby

Don't be alarmed if I'm gone when you wake up
I'll put my name in your phone under favorites
Roses I want by a dozen
But I'll leave you one if you want it
Long as you promise me you ain't gon' say none

Right by your side (right by your side)
Baby I ain't gonna leave you alone tonight (leave you alone)
Wanna love you till we see the morning light
And if we fall in love girl it's alright
Cause it's only for the weekend

And I know you love the first date
What's love in the first place
My place or your place
Fridays we can rotate
I ain't gon' put you on my timeline
Ima wait until the time's right
Long as you're here by my side
Baby

Don't be alarmed if I'm gone when you wake up
I'll put my name on your phone under favorites
Roses I want by a dozen
But I'll leave you one if you want it
Long as you promise me you ain't gon' say none

Right by your side (your side)
Baby I ain't gonna leave you alone tonight (tonight)
Wanna love you till we see the morning light (light)
And if we fall in love girl it's alright
Cause it's only for the weekend
Only for the weekend
Cause it's only for the weekend

All we got is this moment now or never
So baby don't think twice
Ain't no need to focus on forever
But we'll love here for tonight

Right by your side
Baby I ain't gonna leave you alone tonight
Wanna love you till we see the morning light
And if we fall in love girl it's alright (it's alright)
Cause it's only for the weekend

Baby I ain't gonna leave you alone tonight (leave you alone tonight)

Gonna love you till we see the morning light (light)
And if we fall in love girl it's alright (it's alright)
Cause it's only for the weekend
(Cause it's only for the weekend)
Cause it's only for the weekend
Only for the weekend
Cause it's only for the weekend
