

TRY AGAIN

PRETTYMUCH

We never had the chance
It's past tense
But I love who we were back then
Can we do it again?
The way that you pull me in
Yeah I want you still
I know time hasn't been our friend
But can we try this again?

Some things don't end like they used to, uh
Most things change, you ain't gotta choose too, uh
Last time, didn't mean to lose you
One end that we ended too soon
One thing's true, I didn't take proper precaution
We're on an up, but cannot help but do it often
Think it's time to finish up what we started
On the same path, I wouldn't take it back, nah

'Cause I had a plan to get you back outside
If you got a man then girl he's not your type
And I can't deny it
These feelings for you can't be kept in silence
I want you bad
I'm still attached
If you need someone more I can hold ya
I just need you to know before it's over

We never had the chance
It's past tense
But I love who we were back then
Can we do it again?
The way that you pull me in
Yeah I want you still
I know time hasn't been our friend
But can we try this again?

Try this again, can we try this again?
I know time hasn't been our friend
But can we try this again?

I know we cut ties, but we at it again
Man, fuck whoever said that we'd be better as friends
Told me I was tripping, I was settling in
No I'm not your man, but we can pretend
Lately I've been thinking what if we never lost it
And instead I let you in all the things that I thought
Like do I really love you like I say I do?
Do you really think I'm irreplaceable yeah?

'Cause I had a plan to get you back outside
If you got a man then girl he's not your type
And I can't deny it
It feels like every time I'm not with you I'm wildin'
I want you bad
I'm still attached
If you need someone more I can hold ya
I just need you to know before it's over

We never had the chance
It's past tense (Oh woah)
But I love who we were back then
Can we do it again? (Do it again)
The way that you pull me in
Yeah I want you still
I know time hasn't been our friend
But can we try this again?

Try this again, can we try this again?
I know time hasn't been our friend
But can we try this again?
