

Up To You

PRETTYMUCH

It's PRETTYMUCH

Leave it up to you baby
If you wanna spend the night
When the time is right
Leave it up to you baby
Whenever you're comfortable
We can make that move
Leave it up to you

Nobody watching, now I got you all alone
No interruptions
It's hard for me to hold my own and hold back
No cap, no cap
Before we do we some things we're 'bout to both regret
Let's intermission
I should drive you home, darling, ASAP
No cap, no cap

Before we hit the road, if you ain't ready to go
Just tell me that you're sure, you're sure
Cuz I really want you to stay, but this ain't up to me
I just want to make sure you're sure

Leave it up to you, baby
If you wanna spend the night
When the time is right
Leave it up to you, baby
Whenever you're comfortable
We can make that move
Leave it up to you

If you down and you ready to rock
I'm not gonna make you stop
Got time, we can start the clock
I'm not gonna make you stop

I'm not gonna make you stop
Got time, we can start the clock
I'm not gonna make you stop

Leave it up to you
