

WAKE UP CALL

PRETTYMUCH

I was down for whatever
Now I'm lip-locking with the devil
Imma run it back still 'cause I don't know no better
Accent no alphabet
If she act up, Imma let her
I was daydreaming
Thought I'd be back by now, yeah
You doin' great
Sit that ass right back down, yeah
Now you can't hear 'cause you got your face down, cake up
Got your legs shaking like tazer
Got your heart racing no pacer, oh

At the end of the night
We goin' back and forth, back and forth
Baby need pipe it down
She wanted more, but who keepin' score?
Baby needa write that down
Speakin' in foreign
I'm a Rosetta Stone
Put it in sport (woo, woo, ay)

Sunrise, Imma hit in the mornin'
If I don't hit it all
Eyes up when you look like you snorin'
I be your wakeup call
Brr, hello
You up? Good morning
This is your wakeup call
Brr, hello
You up? Good morning
This is your wakeup call
Sunrise, Imma hit in the mornin'
If I don't hit it all
Eyes up when you look like you snorin'
I be your wakeup call
Brr, hello
You up? Good morning
This is your wakeup call
Brr, hello
You up? Good morning
This is your wakeup call

Wakeup, cake up
Caffeinate ya, keep you satisfied, yeah
Make up on my new Bottega she gon' vandalise yeah
Better off, better off in the long run
Imma hit another back with a homerun
Where you at?
Where you been?
Where you come from?

At the end of the night
We goin' back and forth, back and forth
Baby need pipe it down
She wanted more, but who keepin' score?
Baby needa write that down

Speakin' in foreign
