

WRONG?

PRETTYMUCH

You're playing too hard to get
Like your mind's already set
Before we even met
You say you need time to feel your best
While you wondering what's the catch
You must think I'm like the rest

When I look at you you're looking right past me
It's like you tryna distract me
I was there to carry bags that you were unpacking
Until you stopped asking
Love to see you
But I hate to see you waste time
Like when hes touching on your waist line
Knowing that I'm yours
But you ain't mine

Oh, so before you go closing the door
I just need some time to figure it out with you is that so wrong?
Oh, yeah I know that we been here before
I just wanna be the one to figure it out with you is that so wrong?

Wrong
Wrong
Wrong

Do you remember the time we spent
You say, "How could I forget?"
So tell me why'd you hold your breath
Every time I'm with you I just want more of it
Ain't no question I'm sure of it
And your eyes like stars shining so bright in the moon light
Feel like I got it all

When I look at you you're looking right past me
It's like you tryna distract me
I was there to carry bags that you were unpacking
Until you stopped asking
Love to see you
But I hate to see you waste time
Like when he's touching on your waist line
Knowing that I'm yours
But you ain't mine

Oh, so before you go closing the door
I just need some time to figure it out with you is that so wrong?
Oh, yeah I know that we been here before
I just wanna be the one to figure it out with you is that so wrong?

Wrong
Wrong
Wrong

Wrong
Wrong
Wrong

'Cause without you here
I can't bare the thought of you without me there without you
I can't be without you
'Cause without you here
I can't bare the thought of you without me there without you
I can't be without you

Oh baby, so before you go closing the door
I just need some time to figure it out with you
Is that so wrong?
