

Any Colour You Desire

Pridelands

I'm sick of sticking my tongue in my cheek
Trying not to spit at your hypocrisy
Dress it up in any colour you desire, you desire
I can't bear to watch you walk away without a fucking smile on your face
So I stay a while and disintegrate
Disintegrate with me

You won't listen beyond the surface
Watch it ripple along, destructive
(Disintegrate with me
Won't you disintegrate with me?)
You will never belong to this family; to the ones you love

I don't really want to give you a reason yet;
It's not as if you've ever given me a reason to care
It's not as easy to forgive the one that left me here for dead

I'm sick of sticking my tongue in my cheek
Trying not to spit at your hypocrisy
Dress it up in any colour you desire, you desire
I can't bear to watch you walk away without a fucking smile on your face
So I stay a while and disintegrate
Disintegrate with me

So, you wanna see this?
Look at what you've done
You've gotta see this
Uncovered all the webs you've spun
You wanna see this?
Look at what you've done
Oh, you've gotta see this
I've uncovered all the webs you've spun

You can't deny that you hang on every word I say
(We all need someone, we all need someone to stay)
If you wanna meet me halfway I need something
Anything more than your fake apology

I don't really want to give you a reason yet;
It's not as if you've ever given me a reason to care
It's not as easy to forgive the one that left me here for dead
Disintegrate with me
Won't you disintegrate with me?
You wanna see this?
Look at what you've done
