

Evergrowth

Pridelands

Your love is like ivy
Entangling me
Through your careful constriction
I forgot how to breathe
Your soul is a garden
Myriads in my dreams
Under bouquets of affection
You're smothering me
You're smothering me

I'll submit myself to the Evergrowth
Let my hands and my legs be wrapped around and swallowed

And we could try to make our home here, yeah
Is that something you would like?

Something you would like

The roots of this tree grow
Far deeper than we know
Submit to the Evergrowth
The dirt is your home

The roots of this tree grow
So much deeper than we know
Once you submit to the Evergrowth
The earth is your home
