

68 Screen

Priests

Ideas - you've projected on me
Images - you use to cover me
The bright light that obscures my being
Ideas - you've projected on me
Images - you use to cover me
The bright light that obscures my being

I would tear myself in half
To destroy the screen that's got you rapt

Wrapped up in these ideas of me
You've projected on me
Imposed upon me
Wrapped up in these images you see
They're not part of me, not part of me

Ideas - you've projected on me

Wrapped up in these ideas of me
You've projected on me
Imposed upon me
Wrapped up in these images you see
They're not part of me, not part of me

It's your movie
You wrote starred and directed it
I may only be your muse
But I'm necessary
It's your movie
