When you are
Just a kid
When you are just a kid you want everything to be
New
You want everything to be so new
When you are just a kid you want everything to be
But you go into an old house
You go into an old house
And everything is so scary
When you are just a kid you want everything to be
But you go into an old house
