I don't make friends easily or naturally
You can blame chemicals or you can blame patriarchy It's nothing against you I'm sure you're sweet and pretty But it's going to take a lot for me to want to leave my mental city

I built it all up around me
I built it all up around me

Instigating, syncopating ask me why so aggravating Venture a guess you hinge your success on that which you might bleed from me
I've heard it before, I can say for sure, yes
I'm certain that you will agree

No, not me
No, not me

Keep your copper keep your pearls I'm the stubbornest girl in t he world
You'll never drive a harder bargain than me
Yes, it's true, I want more
I want more and more and more
Got more appetite than a bear or a forest full of mouths to fee d
So save your paltry dowry
I'm gonna buy you before you buy me

Keep your copper keep your pearls I'm the stubbornest girl in t
he world
You'll never drive a harder bargain than me
No, not me
No
Not me
